SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES OF MEMBERS OF THE MANEABA NI
MAUNGATABU AND SALARIES TRIBUNAL (AMENDMENT) ACT 2008

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Act amends the Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu and Salaries Tribunal (Revised Edition 2002). The amendments are adopted mostly from the recommendations of the Salaries and Allowances of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu Tribunal set up in June 2007 in accordance with section 65(2) of the Constitution. The Tribunal finalized its report in September 2007.

The amendments are in respect of the salaries and entertainment allowances of Te Beretitenti, Te Kauoman, Ministers and Members of Parliament (MP's from Betio and South Tarawa are differentiated only in the entertainment allowances). The increase in salaries is $1,400 for Te Beretitenti, $700 for Te Kauoman ni Beretitenti and Ministers, and $710 for ordinary members. The increase in entertainment allowance reflects a 15% increase across the board from previous rates.

A new section 3A is inserted. The allowances of the members of the Salaries Allowances Tribunal had found its way in the Schedule following previous amendments to the Salaries & Allowances of Members of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu and Salaries Tribunal Act (Cap 92A). The Constitution does not contemplate that it be so regulated under the Act. The new section 3A removes the allowances of the members of the said Tribunal from the Schedule and place it under the authority of the Beretitenti acting in accordance with the advice of Cabinet to be scrutinized by the Maneaba ni Maungatabu at the earliest opportunity.

The idea is to give the members of the Tribunal comparable allowances at the time they carry out their functions rather than to wait for the new set of allowances to be approved by the Maneaba ni Maungatabu after they have completed their tasks.

Section 5 amends section 4(5)(b) to acknowledge the increase in the attendance of the meeting of the Maneaba ni Maungatabu from “twice” to “three times” a year. The other significant amendments are in respect of subsistence allowance for members attending the Maneaba sitting to $50.00 per day at an increase of $5.00 from the current rate. The Beretitenti and the Kauoman are given free gas facility for cooking as reflected in the amendments to section 8 and 9 respectively.

The Ministers have now to pay housing rent but receive a subsidy of $900.00 per year. A Member of a standing committee who has a house provided for him or her on Tarawa has to pay the full economic rate on rent. Section 13 is amended to increase the entitlement of a member to communication calls at $350 per year but is to be non – accountable. Section 14 is amended to entitle the body of the deceased member to be repatriated to a place other than his or her home island constituency at a cost equivalent to transporting his or her body to his home island constituency.
