COMPANIES' ANNUAL RETURNS (AMNESTY) ACT 2009

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This short Act seeks to address a wide-scale failure of registered companies to file annual returns, as required by the Companies Ordinance (Cap.10A).

Directors of companies in default have advised that the late fees presently imposed under section 7 of the Ordinance have accumulated to levels that are so high as to be crippling, and are a major impediment for companies wishing to bring their filings up to date. The scale of future late fees will be addressed by amendments introduced by the Companies (Amendment) Bill 2009, however it is believed that a limited amnesty period, together with public awareness campaigns and Directors' training, will encourage earlier compliance.

Section 2 of the Act extends the time for filing outstanding annual returns for all past financial years (together with the present financial year) until 30 June 2010.

Section 3 waives any late fees that have accrued, but makes it clear that the fees prescribed by section 7 of the Ordinance will apply to the late filing of annual returns in future.
